NINETEEN

Make An Uproar

Our class is most definitely wild. We possess a wild, boundless energy which we spend both in and out of school.

It will be both the memories of in-school functions and recollections of our weekend escapades that will bring smiles to our faces years down the road.

For obvious reasons, the yearbook staff could not be there during your most uninhibited moments. However, what we could not capture with the camera, we hope to express with our theme, for our class is indeed

"WILD AT HEART"

TED H. DAMKO

"The major reason why LHS athletics have been so successful has been Ted H. Damko's loyalty and dedication to the student athlete - academics have always been high on his priorities. Besides being my boss, he has always been a very loyal and trusted friend."

- Coach Emile Johnson

"Coach Damko is characterized by his dedication to LHS and its students and programs. He's been a friend and loyal faculty member to thousands of kids that have come through here."

- Coach John Dubzinski

"His unprecedented love for sports and the young athletes he has guided through the years has made him an integral and valuable member of the Physical Education and Coaching staffs."

- Patricia Meyer

"His #1 thought is always the kids. His main philosophy is that athletics is there for the kids- athletics is a privilege, not a right."

- Coach Robert Healy

When the class of 1992 graduates, it will leave with a lot of fond memories of academic, artistic and athletic achievements. Athletics, especially, have been a major factor in the development of the Leominster student. For the past eighteen years there has been one man in particular who is always there to help the Leominster athlete exel - Ted Damko.

We will always remember him as our athletic director. In his memorable career he has also been a successful football and basketball coach. He has overseen a high school sports program with six state championships in various sports and seven superbowl appearances under its belt. While other communities dropped many of their sports teams due to Proposition 2½ and years of recession, he fought to keep ours alive. He serves on the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association and is the respected president of the Massachusetts Athletic Directors.

Leominster High has seen students and teachers come and go, but Ted Damko is anything but another departing faculty member. He has and always will be a friend and contributor to Leominster sports, and so we wish him farewell and in gratitude dedicate this yearbook to him.

CLASS OF 1992:

A YEARBOOK IS SOMETHING WHICH CAN BRING TOGETHER THE EVENTS AND PEOPLE OF YOUR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS. IT CAN SERVE AS A REMEMBRANCE OF THE GOOD TIMES AND THE BAD. AS WE ALL KNOW, HERE AT LEOMINSTER HIGH, MOST OF THESE MEMORIES ARE GOOD. WE HAVE TRIED TO INCLUDE SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE. AFTER ALL, EACH INDIVIDUAL IN THE CLASS OF 1992 MAKES HER OR HIS OWN IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTIONS TO LEOMINSTER HIGH SCHOOL.

WE ARE TOLD BY OUR PARENTS AND TEACHERS TO REACH FOR THE STARS AND SUCCEED. THIS SHOULD NOT STOP AT THE DOORS OF LEOMINSTER HIGH SCHOOL. WE, THE YEARBOOK STAFF, WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK IN EVERYTHING YOU DO. STRIVE TO BE THE BEST AND SETTLE FOR NOTHING LESS!

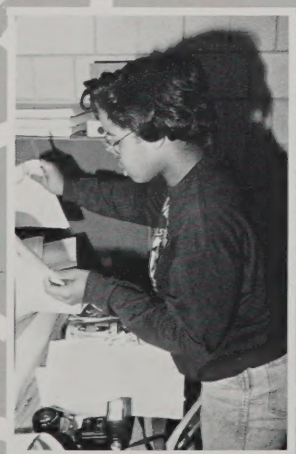

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

These past four years of high school have included some of the most exciting and memorable events of our lives. Our class entered high school with one goal - to leave Leominster High better than we found it. Through both our laughter and tears we'd like to think we have accomplished that one simple goal.

For a time we lived in the shadows of preceding classes. Now that the veil has been lifted, we present our transformations into well-rounded young adults. Although we are not known to be outstanding in just one area such as academics, athletics, or the arts, we are outstanding because we stand together and are composed of every talent rather than one in particular. There are so many achievements and accomplishments that we have reached, and we should all take pride within ourselves. We as the class of "92" are distinctly unique.

Together we have grown-up enough to be able to grow apart. We have broken away from the puzzle, known as the class of 1992, recognizing that eventually the pieces will fall back into place once more.

As your chosen student leaders, it is both our honor and pleasure to wish each and every one of you, our classmates, the best of luck and happiness in whatever you may pursue.

We have come a long way, class of "92"! Let us always be able to count on one another, hold pride in our class, and feel the memories forever.

Best Wishes and Love

Matt Dougherty may look like he's staring into space, but actually he's placing the plywood on the walls.

Mr. Hall gives some advice to Seniors - Danny and Matt - about the plywood.

Here they are again (with Jerry Kirby in the distance) nailing the plywood to the beam. (Don't they ever rest? Obviously not, by the way it looks here!)

COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY

, how many times do I have to tell you, it's this knob."

Gina shows off her band-aid. How'd you cut yourself there Gina?

we have Ray Josephson, Dan Colon, and Kai Raxasack goofing nd. (As usual).

Mr. Wiita helps Tom Foster in repairing some wiring.

Jim and Dan are concentrating intently on completing the maps they are drawing.

This is the only time you will find Jim and Dan quiet for any perio time!

Jim, are you hungry? You're practically eating the paper? As for it seems that he doesn't have an appetite yet.

ELECTRICAL

the two just don't mix.

Mike Gallien and Paul Salvatelli work together diligently.

didn't have to try to be serious for the camera, he wouldn't even look t!

Check this out! Here's Kevin, Terry, and Paul - well you can't see Paul - working on an electrical piece, and there's Jay just sitting there making a face at our photographer. Way to go Jay!!

GRAPHIC ARTS

Kathie, you had better not screw up on that job!", says Mr. M.

How much more do I have to put up with, before I wing these at h

Here's Donna and Lily doin' the same old thing again. (NOTHING!!!)

Don't Tia and Kathie look so happy running the press? Tia sa "Kathie, it's your turn to clean the press, I ain't touching that thing Kathie says, "No it's not, that's the FRESHMAN'S JOB!!!".

HEALTH OCCUPATIONS

Well, we can tell that Carmen hasn't grown at all since last year. Elba should be an expert at checking Carmen's hight now. At least Mrs. Robichaud and Trina thought it was funny.

t all you can do Trina is grin while you're trying to save a life?

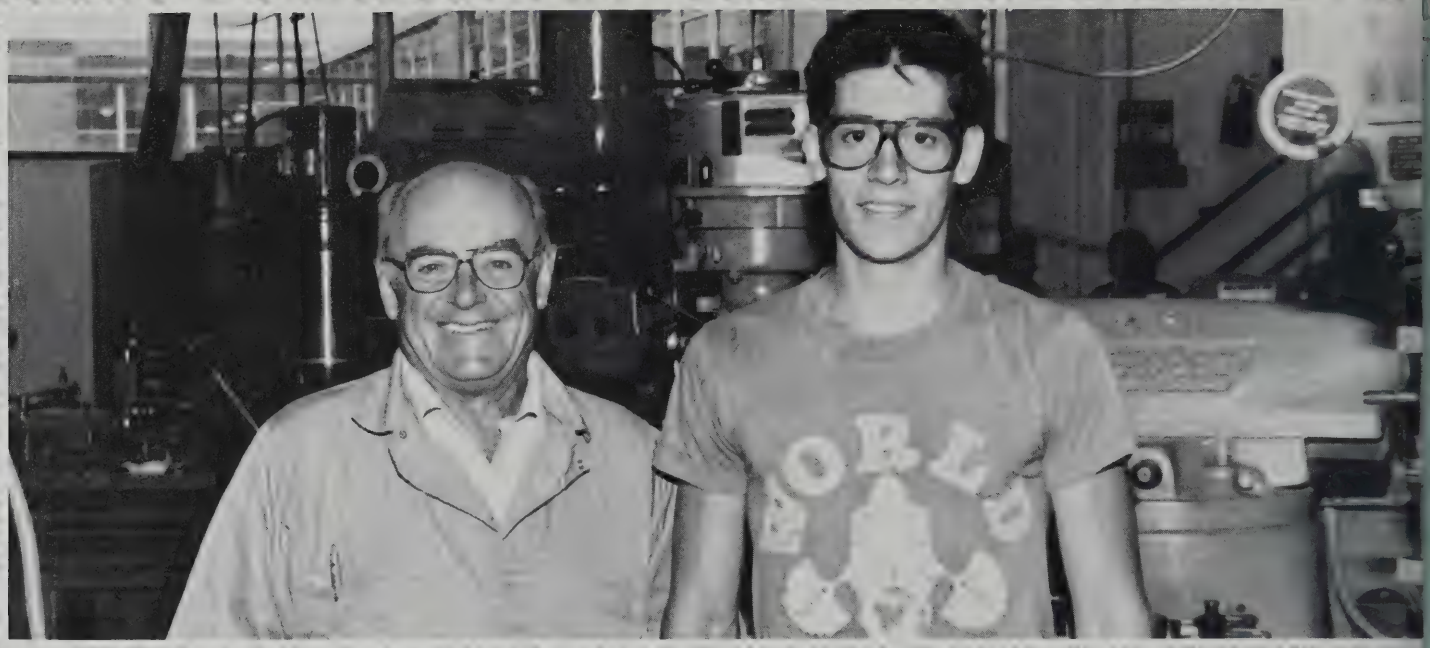

en helps out one of the students in Mrs. Keosian's class, as part of ade.

Elba looks real enthusiastic while Trina takes Carmen's bloodpressure and Mrs. R is listening in. Nicole figures that she'll stay out of this one and hide behind Trina.

MACHINE SHOP

Here I go doing the same thing again. I started this two months ago!

Mr. Belliveau must be tired if repeating himself, just look at his fa
